Dear Sir,

As you kindly directed I took one of the volumes I mentioned to you, to Mr. Dawson.
He said the work was worth $30.⁰⁰ & to send down the other volumes.
I did so, but he tells me there should be seven & I have only the first four. He does not think it worth offering them for sale. Perhaps someone might value them however, so I shall ask him to allow them to lie in his store.

With many thanks for your kind attention

Believe me

Yours truly
Elizabeth Muir.
