CANADIAN COMMISSION.

Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, 13th Sept 1877.

My dear Sir

It is impossible to say now what might be done in the way of reports—~~with~~ you—but I doubt if the Govt will increase the expenses of the Commission—the grant already being far below requirements. I expect to be in Montreal next week on my way to a return from Quebec—and will be at Judge Mackay's when I would be glad to make the acquaintance of your son who I suppose will spend the next winter in Paris—

Believe me

Very truly yours

W. C. Kufner
