My dear Sir

I have been reading with much interest your volume on 'The Origin of the world' & have got our friend Mr. Patterson to give us an appreciative notice of it in 'The Freeman'. The subject is one of deep interest & it is a great comfort to have it treated with reverence & competent knowledge.

I sometimes adorn books & prize with the Photograph harder to induce, I have felt anxious to secure means for forming lectures in Sweden, Practical Theology is a great need with us.

It is good in every thing but the name.

With our Best regards

Believe me to be

I shall greatly prize an ex-have a Photograph to spare.

It will be also a memento of a very pleasant visit I paid years ago to the 'Gile'.

The first page of the enclosed may interest you. It illustrates the difficulties & struggles of an work on this side.
