Dear Dr. Dawson

I have great pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of your manuscript.

I will send you proof as soon as possible, in order that you may correct them before going to press.

I hope you will allow me to send the 100 copies free; considering it a kindness on your part to distribute them among your friends.

Dear Mr. Brown
I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 24th inst.

and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am sorry to hear that you are not well, and hope that you will soon be able to resume your usual avocations. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,
John Smith

May I ask you to give me the names and addresses of able writers of your circle of acquaintance, whose interest I might seek to enlist in connection with the Review; and also, if it may suit your pleasure, the topics upon which they are most at home.

I remain

With the greatest respect
James W. Gibbs
