My dear Sir:—

I inclose a check to you order for $42.00, receipt of which please to acknowledge, in payment for the second installment of "Science and the Exodus," and wish to thank you for the two contributions you have made to Sunday afternoon.

We mailed a copy of the April No. to you yesterday, and send another today. Press copies have been

Thankful to you

Thankful to you for the information you have furnished me regarding the order for $2,000, which is payment for the second installment of interest and the principal, and also to thank you for the time and trouble you have taken to check the amount of my
the first to be paid today.
Please inform me when regularly sent to the Witness and Evening Star, but so far as I am aware have had no notice.

Yours truly
