My Dear Dr Dawson

We are looking forward to the pleasure of a visit from you. Meanwhile accept my most grateful thanks for your handsome and valuable Acadian volume, including the supplementary addenda of latest observations.

It will give me great pleasure to try and get a brief space in the Globe's columns devoted to it, at the earliest leisure I can command.

On speaking to Mr Crook, and sending him William's Testimonials, with a strong letter in his favour, he told me that he had already been in communication with you. Perhaps when you are here, we may bring him to some definite point.

Will you say to Mr George and Mr Rankin that we have spare room, I shall be much pleased if it suits their plans to rest here on their way to the Western wilds.

I hope to start from Quebec by the 25th of May;
but examinations and other work will keep me busy till the last moment.

Yours faithfully

Dan. Wilson
