My dear Sir,

Excuse me
for my long delay in answering your very kind letter. I can assure you nothing could be more tempting than
a position at Princeton,
with all its pleasant
features of genial
companionship and
its prospects of wide influence. But I have

urgent needs, and the friends who have struggled by my
side for twenty years,
and my domestic
ties here and
my large collections
about unmovable
and demanding
work and study
here than I can give, all tie me
to Montreal for

The present, so that I fear it could be
very to leave, until no hope remains that the Super and the light of knowledge
can conquer our
Foul Curator.

I hope soon to
write fully to Mr Curt on the matter
and in the mean time believe me
Very sincerely yours
W. D. A. W.
