NY July 22^d 1878

My dear Dawson

Your letter of the 18th inst to my son Mr Jonas M. Libbey, reached here in due course, He expects to leave London on Saturday of this week for home, and upon arrival will take pleasure in conferring with you upon the subject matter of your letter. I am pleased [Faint, illegible handwriting covering the majority of the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

To see that the subscriptions of our Canada friends continue to come in steadily, nor do they flag from any other section. for which, on behalf of the good cause, we are thankful

I am very respectfully
William Libbey.
