My dear Sir:

The paper alluded to in the enclosed slip will be published (probably on the 19th inst.) in the New Church Journal, of N.Y. If I get a copy that I can spare, I shall do myself the honor of sending you one.

I have just ordered the May No. of the Princeton Review, for the sake of your article contained in that No.. For a long time I have earnestly desired to obtain all your <sup>published</sup> writings upon subjects kindred to that of the article alluded to.

Could you furnish me with them? — & at any discount? — for I am so poor that the buying of books is to me an almost prohibited luxury. If you cannot, I should be greatly obliged to you for a list of them, with names of places where they may be obtained.

Yours Very Truly,
C. S. Percival
