

Dr Dawson

Dear Sir.

Your kind letter of Dec 28th came duly to hand but the storm has rendered it impossible to acknowledge it - mail communication being entirely stopped. Many thanks for your kindness in writing and for your holiday greetings. I am sure that my husband would have been greatly pleased that his province collections should fall into your hands and I

sincerely hope it may prove practicable for you to buy them. I am having some trying experiences in business matters and encounter sufficient coldness on the part of those who should be helpful to make me very grateful for any kindness & goodwill. I shall be glad to hear the result of your conference with Mr Selwyn

Yours very sincerely
