

Mr. Wood presents his compliments to Dr. Dawson, and begs permission to submit to him the accompany-ing M. S. on the subject of "Geological Antiquity," which the return of his friend, Sir A. G. Sault, to Canada affords him the opportunity to trans-mit.

Aware of the abundance of Dr. Dawson's engagements,

Mr. Wood deprecates, of course, all interference therewith; and, being in no haste whatever, will only be too glad if, at any leisure moment, Dr. Dawson will kindly peruse the M.S., and make any such criticisms thereon as the argument may seem to him to call for.

For the more convenient return of the paper, the Author encloses it in an inner envelope, re-addressed to himself.
