Dear Dr. Dawson:

I am happy to inform you that the package of books advised in yours of the 7th, & which was stuck in the Custom house, has been duly received. The Smithsonian Institution is much obliged to you for the portion intended for its library; the others will all be duly distributed.

I have made arrangements with the Treasury Department by which such consignments will not be delayed in the future.

Yours truly,
Spencer Baird

Prof. J. H. Dawson.
