My Dear Sir

The sympathy expressed in your note of yesterday is very comforting to me - and it was very good of you indeed to express it. There was another element, however, in my difficulty of Sabbath Evening of which I may speak more particularly when I meet you.

Accept my best thanks for the expository suggestions you kindly offer. I will weigh them in dealing with my subject on Sab. Mornng.

Our young peoples Monday Evening Meetings are to close for the season on the evening of the 3th prox. (a week from next Mon. evg.) I have been deputed to ask you to take the Lecture or Address on that Evg. It is the intention to charge an admission fee of 25 cents with

My dear Sir
The sympathy expressed in
