

McGill College.
Montreal.

June 26/79

Dear Sir,

With reference to the letter from P. Lewis returned herewith they
to say that though the baggage was declared
to put checks on the bavels I understood
him to say they were to go as extra baggage No mention was made of the Express or I should

McGILL UNIVERSITY
ARCHIVES
ACC. NO. 20112
REF. 1

ed cost applied not to St Louis but to St
Ottawa. At that place Mr. Dawson learned for the first time that his panels were in possession of the copy man,
and was obliged in
the hurry of the four minutes the train stops there to dash, and I have reason to believe was much annoyed

and unaccommodated by the circumstances. Had I been there I should have refused to take the bawls in the presence of cutpurses
and should have taken proceedings ^{against} _{of extortion} ^{money} ^{under} ^{false} ^{pretences} the man for robbery & Mrs. Dawson unfortunately paid the bill

I am sorry you have had so much trouble in the matter; but nevertheless think I have been wronged and if the money cannot be recovered shall consider what course it may be best to take Yours
J. Dawson