

Biddle Plan
27. Paternoster Row.

London 21 Aug 1879
E.C.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your favour of the 6th we write to say that we shall be very pleased to undertake the publication of your new work at our own risk and to divide net profits with you. The writer was not successful with Messrs. Harper - either in procuring an order for an American Edition of "Fossil Men" or for copies of "The Dawn of Life", but we shall try to sell some of the new book to an American house.

We do not think there will be any difficulty in getting Electro of the wood blocks from the Religious Tract Society.

We hope to send you a statement of account up to Midsummer shortly, with the balance due to you but in the meantime we shall feel obliged if you will receive an amount due to us from Mr. Drysdale upon whom we enclose an order. As times have been very bad in Montreal we hope to hear from you that this small sum has been duly paid

We are Dear Sir

Yours respectfully

Waddell & Stoughton

Principal Dawson Esq
