Dear Sir

I take the liberty of addressing a few words to you, ^{after this} with respect to the relations of an Protestant Educator to that of the A.C. population which seem to be a comparison of the nature of the study granted the Protestants last week.

1. I think we sympathize very much with the views of your colleagues with respect to imposing of respects on behalf of R.C. inspectors.
We have been very busy & make it our efforts to do for the Protestant Schools are concerned and with some success ^{and of course in respect to} but we could not attempt to measure ^{the} improvement, provided we could have an appropriate separate to as not to interfere with the R.C. Committee

2. You have seen that in some respects we are very served of the Educator Office. This is valuable as the R.C. Committee seems to be the best the State can propose by a little thought to you to us. For that reason we have wished to have an efficient active department in the Office which charged with R.C. Ed. if it were called to superintend the present business you to be done with more than success, and we have much hope of seeing in good speed to learn Public life State such an office.

aged against the destruction of the C.P.G. made by the late Sir and I am sure they are not few the feature of it is by means of the Provisional Ministry in the power given to manage an School, as a separate committee, This has so far proved successful and we would earnestly wish that a wholesale change may be made it may be proved better.

I am sure you will be impressed with the spirit displayed of your young colleagues with regard to education and I hope that they will put up with you in it.
What we can do in the Provl Committee is mainly to remove difficulties and to set a good example. This I am sure we shall strive to do, but chiefly depends on our being allowed to take an unconstrained view of the N.E. Committee, which they cannot claim to advance Education - depends on us by means in regard to the Means, and was perhaps a few years in it when great in little too much of opposite party to such as they should be.

With the best of wishes
