

To the Rev. Principal Dawson
McGill College Montreal. Canada

MACMILLAN AND CO.,

PUBLISHERS TO THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD,

29 & 30, BEDFORD STREET, COVENT GARDEN, W.C.

My dear Principal Dawson
London, Oct. 24 - 1879.

When you send the little bills you wish paid here we will gladly attend to them. kindly note that they are to be met by the balance due to you on publishing account.

We always keep up our stock as we sell copies. But it seems that a public for books so high & special is hard to find.

It is just a question whether we ought not to let the whole stock go at what they would bring by auction. They would be sure to bring little, but they might get distributed among poor students and make up interest in new quarters. Would you like such a course if we see it alright?
I hope Mrs Dawson & your family are well. Are you coming to England next year? With kind regards

Yours very sincerely

Alex. Macmillan.
