

Saturday Evening

Dr Dawson

My Dear Sir

This forenoon I called upon you to tell you of a proposed scheme whereby some of us think that during the winter enough money might be raised to meet the deficit in our current expenses and also lift the $3000 mortgage. The scheme includes the course of lectures you were good enough to offer to give, and which we estimate at $300—

I would like very much to be able to talk the matter over with you — An adjourned meeting of Session, Managers, Trustees and others is to be held on Tuesday Evg. at 7.30 Could you possibly come and confer with us?

I am quite hopeful that if we

October 1891

Dear Mother

My dear Mother

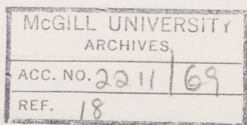

I received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not seen any of the old friends here. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not seen any of the old friends here. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not seen any of the old friends here.

can only interest all of our little congregation we may tide over our present difficulty.

Mr Russell informed me last evening that the agent accepted of the interest tendered yesterday, and he is not without hope that for the present proceedings will be stayed -

Knowing that with myself you are equally anxious, I desired to state to you the steps taken for your satisfaction

Yours faithfully
James McLean

To the same

Oct 179

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper]

MS. A. 9. 2. 11
179