PHILADELPHIA.

November 20, 1879.

Dear Sir:-

In connection with the beginning of the second seven years' course of International Lessons, The Sunday School Times, of which I am editor, is to print in a special number a series of articles bearing on the general subject of Bible study, to which they shall form a sort of introduction. This number will contain articles by Bishop Ellicott, Canon Rawlinson, Dr. F. H. A. Scriven, Dr. Howard Crosby, Dr. Justin Phelps, Dr. W. M. Thomson, and other eminent English and American scholars. We are anxious that you should write for it an article on the general relations between popular science and popular Bible.

Principal

study, or some kindred theme. For such an article, of say 1000-2000 words, we should be pleased to send an honorarium of $ 25. We ought ~~to receive it by December 1.~~ Trusting that you will be able to offer this aid to thousands of students and teachers, I am over

Yours very truly,
H. Clay Turnbull

(Dawson) } Editor of The Sunday School Times.

We know that the time mentioned is short, but it is only recently that we have become so assured of the success of the number as to make us desirous of completing the series by such an article as the one proposed.
