

School of Mines, Columbia College,

CORNER 49TH STREET & 4TH AVENUE,

New York, Dec. 2^d 1879

Prof. J. W. Dawson
My dear Sir

Please accept my sincere thanks for the Atlas of fossils for 1863

I do not consider that you were at all in my debt, and shall endeavor to send you some Equivalents

The fish spine came safely. It is a new species but not so well preserved as I could wish.

I spent the entire season

School of Business, Columbia College

Library and Special Collections

New York, N.Y. 10027

Prof. J. M. [unclear]

[unclear] from the

[unclear] account of

[unclear] for the

[unclear] for the

[unclear] the [unclear]

[unclear]

[unclear]

[unclear]

[unclear]

| | |
|-------------------|---------|
| MCGILL UNIVERSITY | |
| ARCHIVES | |
| ACC. NO. | 2211/69 |
| REF. | 81 |

with the money derived of the Fair West - Had a laborious but profitable trip - pecuniarily & scientifically.
When you come down to New York, as I hope you will do this winter
I shall be pleased to show you some of the interesting things I obtained.

With all good wishes
I am as ever

Yours Faithfully
J. S. Newberry

D. Newbery
Dec 1799
S