My dear H. D. Dawson.

Very many thanks for your kind note of the 19th.
I feel sorry to have troubles about so trifling a matter, but I was disappointed at finding that what I presume to be the only cause of the recent great gathering of the friends of Magell, my name should have been omitted altogether.

I certainly cannot for me demand that you be in the slightest degree blameworthy in the matter.

Again thanking you for your very courteous letter and trusting you may succeed in the attempt

Believe me

Very sincerely
yours

W. A. Woodville.
