My dear Dr. Douson

I had not heard of the bill you speak
of, and don't know whether it
has been passed.
I will inquire.

Nothing can be done to repeal it before the <sup>Co.</sup> Council meets.

The council
right here have been consulted before
the bill was brought in, as they certainly are supposed to give advice on such subjects.

I have not seen the bill, but I gather
from what you
said that the law,
if it has become law,
prescribes one set
of text books for schools of the same class.

I think if we

Choose a tolerably
good set of textbooks
the benefit of this
w<sup>d</sup> more than counterbalance the evils.

We have talked about it in the Co., but put it off to attend to more urgent matters. Now
we shall have to take it up & come to some decision when we next meet.

I am

Faithfully
yours
W. L. Bee
