Friday P.M.

Dear Sir

Many thanks for your hint as to testimonials. I received a note from Mr. Wallace asking for testimonials as to my moral character, which I obtained from Dr. MacVicar and my minister, Rev. Jas. Fleck, and mailed yesterday. They did not ask for testimony of any other character because, as I supposed, they would been able to make here - wants to get interest in my behalf -

I am

Yours respectfully
J. T. Donald.

S. Dawson 3

Correspond with you respecting my fitness in other respects. In recommending me as you have kindly Consented to do please do not say too much in my favor for in the event of going to Horsler I would not like the authorities to expect great things and then be disappointed.

I also asked if they could not make the salary $1200 if they thought me a fit one for the position, for the $1000 which they mention in their first letter is not any more than I have

Inald
