I do not do Dr. Killman's address to see into him.

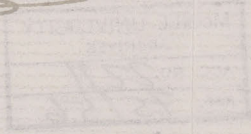

Dear Sir

Previous to the receipt of your note of 16th, I had seen Mr Nelson about a renewal of the efforts to pay off the debt of the B. S. & M. Co.; which he promised to assist in. I called at Mr. Barkley's office, but he had already left for Colorado.
Mr. Davidson showed me some papers addressed to Dr. Killman and promised to ask him to call on me. I wait his calling & will try to arrange about a meeting to organize the Collection.
I will let you know as soon as there is anything definite.
Yours truly
M. J. P. S. Davidson
