

Montreal, 8th Nov. 1880

Dear Sir,

I regret very much I had not the pleasure of seeing you the other day when I called. I could have explained how it is that Mrs Davidson's affairs are not yet terminated. Pardon me if I take the liberty of suggesting that this circumstance will not prevent your giving her the letters which are so necessary for her, for Kingston. Her case deserves all our sympathy; and should you think ~~it necessary~~ to know the particulars, I shall be happy to see you at any time you like.

I have the honor of remaining

Yours obediently
