My dear Sir

Very many thanks

- we shall welcome your papers on Dr Southall's subject.

- The three copies of what you had written ^{in the Princeton Review} are come, thanks.

Up to this 102 have joined this year - of which 42 live in the Colonies and other places abroad - thus since 1871 we have never failed to get at least 100 each year. We have indeed to be thankful that the Master seems to have so guided His work

Yours very truly
Peter

P.S. I see in Mr David Howard one of our members
- now on the Council - the future Secretary, unless his great talents place him for please such a position
