

Sunday Evening

My Dear Dr Dawson

I should have acknowledged your note of the 17th sooner had I not expected to see you before this time
- Mrs Holmes is very ill with no hope of recovery and my wife is in town attending upon her - It is likely that I may

may go in to-morrow evening or the day after — We of course cannot go to the Founders Festival and I do not think I can go to Quebec
— I will write to Mr Bethune to-morrow and see him when I go in —

— It is an excellent Choice of a Successor to Mr Wente —

With kind regards to Mrs Dawson and your Young People. believe me
Yours sincerely
Chas D. Day
