

Toronto. Feb. 9. 1881.

My dear Dr. Dawson,

I believe I have nothing to say in answer to your friendly criticism except that if the soundness of the Bys Linders view is challenged I have no doubt he will defend it as far as his small learning and ability serve him - that is unless he sees reason to think that he has fallen into an error, in which case I trust he will correct his

My dear Sir
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the above mentioned subject. I am sorry to hear that you are not satisfied with the result of the examination. I have no objection to your making such use of the facts as you may think proper. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant,

statement like an honest man.

Very truly yours

Goldwin Smith.

Your wish seems likely to be fulfilled as to the alteration in the words "Prayer Book" I am not inclined to admit its necessity.

I have to apologize for giving you a wrong title last time I addressed you. I suppose it was your theological learning that led me astray for the moment.
