My dear J. Dawson

Ought we not to try and meet in Quebec a day in advance of our Ordinary business in order that we may have the benefit of the advice and assistance from Chairman the Bishop of Quebec?

The matter is one of essential importance and claims a little extra sacrifice of time at our hands. The Bishop has many engagements and should be written to in advance if this plan prove acceptable to you. Yours very truly

R. W. Hencker
