My dear Sir,

Your note of yesterday's date came to hand this morning. I examined the Minutes very carefully again, and I find that there was nothing done in regard to the examination of Inspectors beyond the appointment of a Committee - that never reported. I went to the Department of Public Instruction this forenoon, & saw the Superintendent, - who kindly furnished me at once with sent "the same before our next meeting."

Do you think it would be advisable to do so?

Yours very sincerely a copy of the Journal of Public Instruction containing the regulations for the examination of Roman Catholic Aspirants to the office of Inspector of School. I send you with this said copy of the Journal of Public Instruction on the 85 & 86th pages of which you will find the Regulations referred to. I received today from the Department of Public Instruction the Roman Catholic Committee's answers to your structures on the Proposed New Bill on Education. I think I should write out copies of it for the several members of our Committee, that each may have time to read mark, and inwardly di-
