Dear Doctor Dawson

I have sent your note of yesterday to Sir John and requested his prompt attention to its suggestions.

I had also a chance
of mentioning the subject to Sir J. Kennedy this morning, who seemed an interest in our affair and was asked for information which he was not before his possession of on the subject, which it was able to give.

Believe me
Yours very truly
Wm. W. W.
