

Summer School of Christian Philosophy.

Rev. CHARLES F. DEEMS, D.D., LL.D., Dean.
Rev. AMORY H. BRADFORD, Secretary.

Warwick Woodlands,
Greenwood Lake, Orange County, N. Y.
July, 1881.

Montclair N. J. U.S.A
March 21; 1881

The Rev. Principal Dawson.

My Dear Sir.

It is proposed to hold during the month of July, in the coming Summer, at Greenwood Lake, a Summer School of Christian Philosophy. Greenwood Lake is one of the most beautiful resorts in the Middle States, and is distant from N. Y. City about an hour and a half, by time. The School will last about ten days. The relation of Christianity to Scientific truth, or to the present condition of physical Science, will be made conspicuous in all the lectures.

lecturer of the morning. We do not want the price about in July because we desire to adapt our plans to suit the convenience of the students we hope to receive for our lectures. Please inform us as to what you can accept our invitation, and also what date and subject would suit you best and what subject you select.

Very sincerely yours.

A. H. Bradford.

Montclair.

New Jersey.

I am charged with the preliminary Correspondence, and take great pleasure in inviting you 10th one of our lectures. We can offer you $50 for your services, and a ~~reasonable~~ reasonable amount for travelling Expenses. An enterprising business man has guaranteed all the Expenses. Lectures are ~~also~~ already promised by Dr Drime and Dr Howard Crosby of New York, and invitations are extended to such men as Drs McCook
Mark Hopkins, Pres Porter of Yale,
Prof Asa Gray of Harvard and other Scholars of distinguished reputation.
May we add your name 10th list of Lecturers? We desire one lecture 10th delivered in the morning, probably 10th followed in the afternoon by a Conversation on the Subject of the ~~afternoon~~ ^{morning}, 10th conducted by the

Bradford
Oct 18/81