

Campbellton July 13th 1881

Professor Dawson
Dear Sir

Your favour was duly received today, and in reply to your question about a room, we will keep our best front Room for you and Mrs Dawson, and hope you will enjoy your visit, it is very pleasant here just now not any too warm.

Yours very truly
R. Dawson

Dawson

July 13th 1881

Dear Sir

Your favour was kindly received & in reply to your question about a room, we will keep one but front door for your use Mr Dawson, and hope you will enjoy your visit, it is very pleasant here just now and
too warm.
Yours very truly
R. Dawson