

410 Harvard Street
Cambridge, Mass.
July 25. 1881

My dear Dr. Dawson,
I am just finishing an essay on "German Neo-Kantianism", which I should like to see in an early number of the Princeton Review.
But though my work is perhaps not worse than most that appears in that magazine, I knew it is hard to get a first footing without the support of some valued contributors. Now, as I know your name would be potent enough to open the door to me, and as you kindly offered me this assistance last autumn, I take the liberty of asking you for a note of recommendation to the editor.

I am spending my vacation here for the sake of the Harvard Library.
At the same time I am correcting the sheets of a little work on Kambian Ethics and the Ethics of Evolution, which Williams and Norseth are bringing out for me, and of which I hope soon to have the honour of sending you a copy.

Very truly yours

J. G. Schurman

Prof. Schumann

July 1871

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]