for proficiency in Scripture les-son. Lesson 2 Kings 6th to 10th chs inclusion. 6 studied the whole 7 only 3 chs. A great many more should have tried but!
am glad that some have.

18 have brought work for the exhibition. More are to come.

The interior of the house is assuming quite a gala day appearance.

I hope to be able to send you a printed account of our fes-tival.

I write in haste. I do not like to delay acknowledg-ing receipt of the present.

Thanking you and Mrs Dewar again and wishing you all a truly happy New Year in which my warm joins with me I remain yours J. Fenwick

P.S. My mother is very smart woman. She has begun to bake for Jan'y 2<sup>d</sup> and the following days. Friends will help her. She wears your dress very often now I may say almost daily. The Nurse

Dr Dawson

My dear Sir

The slippers have just come in and been tried on.

My mother says she does not know how to express her gratitude to Mrs Dawson for her handsome present.
She sends her thanks also to you for you had a hand in the matter.

I also thank you and Mrs Dawson for your kindness to my mother.

I am very busy preparing for New Year. I begin preparations in the spring.
