Montreal, 3 June 1882

Dear Sir

Mr. A. J. Riddell writes me as follows "With regard to your letter to the Proprietors of 4 November last in which you state that I will doubtless undertake the work for the proprietors which up to this time you have been doing, I beg to say that, while I shall be pleased to entertain any proposition from the proprietors to that end carrying with it a reasonable remuneration, until some arrangement is made with the proprietors & I am authorized and empowered to act for them I must decline to take any responsibility of management upon myself.

I shall be glad if you will place this statement before the proprietors so that misunderstandings may be avoided."

As my responsibility, if I ever assumed any, has long since ceased & as I decline to disburse another cent either for the removal of a lease or any other purpose it may be well for you in conjunction with the other proprietors to appoint Mr. Piddell to act for you. Our lease expires 18th inst. all others in Sept/82 & the bond to Mr. Davis expires in March next.

Yours truly
Chas. H. Hamilton
