

6, Bateman Gardens,
London, W. Jan. 20th 1882.

Sir,

I thank you for favouring me with an order for "Debrett".

I hope, however you will pardon me for calling your attention to the circumstance that when you returned the proof you omitted to read the requisition for prepayment which headed the order form [see enclosure].

The copy you have ordered is the edition of Baronetage at 12/6

Will you therefore kindly forward me a remittance, or an order for payment on some English house for 14/6 being 12/6 for book, and 2/- for freight postage.

In consequence of the work being considerably enlarged this year it will not be published until the end of February, but will be corrected to this date.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Robert H. Main, L. D.

(Editor of "Debrett").

HOUSE OF COMMONS & JUDICIAL BENCH.

CONTAINS 1000 ENGRAVINGS OF ARMS OF M.P.'s., AND OF PARLIAMENTARY BOROUGHS.

Edited by Robert H. Mair, LL.D.

THE most copious Parliamentary Guide, the only Illustrated one, and the only book adapted for the Library or the Table, all others being pocket editions. Each Member's political bias is given in his own words, which in many cases reflect opinions as they are felt, and not as they appear in dry division lists.

The contents are varied, and comprise,—Biographies of all M.P.'s., Lists of Constituencies returning Members to Parliament, with the names and political bias of the members, the votes polled, the number of Registered Electors, and the following EXCEPTIONAL subjects:—

1. Engravings of the Armorial Bearings of Members of Parliament.—2. Illustrations of the Heraldic Insignia of Corporate Bodies returning Members.—3. Biographical Sketches, and Engravings of the Arms borne by the Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature, and of the High Court of Justice.—4. Biographical Sketches of (a) the Judges of the Superior Courts of Ireland and Scotland, (b) the Judges of the County Courts of England, (c) the Recorders of England.—5. The Parliamentary Boundaries of English Boroughs.—6. The Names and Addresses of Returning Officers.—7. A Dictionary of Parliamentary Expressions.—8. Complete Lists of the Names of Lord Chancellors and of Speakers of the House of Commons from the Earliest Era with the dates of their Appointments.—9. An Alphabetical List of Peers.—10. Genealogical Anecdotes and Traditions respecting the origin of certain armorial bearings.—11. Changes that have taken place in the personnel of Parliament since the last general election (This is especially valuable for ready reference). 12. A Calendar of Bye-Elections.
