

PROF. ROBERT ELLIS THOMPSON, Ph. D., Editor-in-Chief, American Supplement to the ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA.

J. M. Stoddart & Co., Publishers,
No. 1018 CHESTNUT STREET.

Philadelphia, July 20 1882.

Dr. J. W. Dawson

My Dear Sir

I have been unable to procure any account of Mr Grant Allen for our Supplement. A letter has looked no response. To you as a Canadian & a naturalist I apply for your kind assistance. If you could prepare a sketch of him, or could tell us from whom to get it, you would very greatly oblige me.

Very truly yours

R. E. Thompson

P. S. Thanks for your prompt reply in the matter of a sketch of you our life.

For further information, please apply to the Address of the Encyclopedia Britannica

J. M. Stoddard & Co., Publishers

No. 1018 Chestnut Street

Philadelphia, Pa. 1882

Dr. W. W. Johnson

Philadelphia

Dear Sir

Very truly yours

I have been pleased to receive your account of the first Allen for the first time. A letter has been sent to you for you as a Cambridge naturalist. I hope for you this assistance of
you could prepare a sketch of this, a collection of the to get it, you would very much help me.
Very truly yours
J. M. Stoddard & Co.