Prof. Jos. W. Dawson, D.D.

Dear Sir:

I am instructed by the Yale Theological Faculty to say, that the days you name for the delivery of your lectures, viz. Mon. 9, 10 & 11 will be entirely satisfactory. They like also, in the interest of the students that you will find it convenient to occupy an additional hour on the 12th.

Then lectures, in answer to an inquiry of yours, they would not desire to be delivered to a neighboring Seminary prior to their delivery here. After this they do not consider that they have any right to express a preference, as they have no choice or voice in the case.

With pleasant anticipations of your expected visit,

I remain, Dear Sir,

Very truly & respectfully Yours

Yours & Day
