Dawson Esq. M. D. Montreal.

Dear Sir,
Your kindness to me in giving me the informations I needed, last January, for a situation in the States, encouraged me to write you for a friend of mine. The young lady is just arrived from England and wishes to have a situation as a governess. She is of a very respectable family. She is highly educated in English and possesses very refined manners. She is also able to teach rudiments of music.

At last sir, please write to Miss St. Remy for better information a lady who keeps a very high school and for whom I am teaching French. I also send you to prospectus of her institution.

I am with gratefulness for the last kindness you granted me and for the future, that I ^{also} hope you will favor me.

Your respectful servant
Emmie Scheffer.
