My dear Sir,

Proof up to p 190 arrived this afternoon and will be returned with this.

I have not yet
seen pages 190 ^{to} 204, the gap between the present proof and that of last week. We have I see proof of the cuts & of the legends attached to them. This

Should have been sent on with the rest, to enable me properly to fix the places of the cuts, some of which I feel sure are wrongly placed, and I have marked them accordingly;
but I labour under a great disadvantage in not having the cuts a their profs. I wish you would send the

of the cuts
proofs, with the remaining lot of proof.

There are several important matters to be made in the pages
now returned, but I have arranged them
so, as to avoid overrunning.

I have read this very hastily because I supposed that my two

The copy of the proof I have sent you will be impatient to have it returned, I hope
however you will understand the connection,

Truly yours

J. Dawson
