Dear Sir

I take the liberty of asking a favour from you because I know of no one who could give me more valuable advice than yourself. I intend selling a portion of my library & I have sent you a catalogue. Could you give me or tell me how I can obtain

The addresses of the principal public libraries in the United States who would be likely to purchase
books?

I am, dear Sir,
Yours sincerely

Herbert Taylor
