Sherbrooke, Que., 10 June 1802

My dear Dr. Dawson

It is a little early for me to name a time for our meeting as I find such a heap of work to do on my return from England that as yet I cannot see daylight through it.
I intend however remaining at home for the greater part of the Summer and as you say you intend doing the like we are I think when you come out to the Convention shall settle on a time or times. I fear the work cannot be done in one or two sittings.
I am sorry to see the Protestant Schools of Montreal in such a financial position as to require special effort. but I hope that special effort will succeed. I have long been of the opinion that a free gift of any kind is not valued, and that with voluntary bodies the willing hand does all the work. Yours truly P. W. Hencker
