

Dear Sir,

Plow send me another copy of the form which is stuck. It was all that you wrote me & a line from Mitchell & Wilson I had sent the remainder of my M.S. to Plow & a part of Lane's sheet - Thinking they were the men.

I want one or two more copies of what is, sent 1 for myself at the Office, 1 at my lady's house 1 for the printer

The object is to be able to work at both places. If I had only one I might prefer to carry a backpack and friends. The kind for my printer is as the my guide him and assist the proof corrector as in using my translation -

Yours much
D. J. Parnica
