Dear Sir

Many thanks for your postal card, re spelling reform. If we can have the sympathy of yourself and other prominent men of education, as well as the support and influence which your mere nominal connection with our movement would afford us, we will do, as well as we can, the actual work. If you will, therefore, kindly give me your permission, I will, at the next meeting of our Society, propose you as an honorary Vice president thereof.

Yours truly
Jas. Crankshaw

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for your postal card re school reform. It is very sympathetic of yourself and other prominent men of education, as well as the support and assistance which your various national committees with our movement would afford us, and we are well as we can. The school work of your will therefore, kindly give us your permission I will, at the next meeting of our Society, propose you as an honorary member thereof.

Yours truly,
J. M. Dawson
