

My Dear Sir

I am told, on the eve of my departure, that the letter I addressed to you (expressed,) was mailed without "Canada" upon it! I think my informant is mistaken - but at the same time will duplicate my acknowledgements of your courteous communications in these few last lines. I expect to reach Montreal on the Saturday, the 19th, if all is well.

And the rooms you have engaged will be quite sufficient for me. I am under great obligations for your kind attention to the matter.

Very Truly
