

Long Branch

Sept. 6. 1882

To J. W. Sanson S. L. T.

What a stupid clerk was that to make such an error, and cause you my dear sir so much trouble!

I did not see the order myself aft. it was drown-ed & I could have detected it. I am truly

Sorry to thus unwittingly have caused you trouble over such a small sum.

Let me thank you for all your pains-taking, and accept my sincerest
Estim
