A. D. TAYLOR.

N. W. TRENHOLME.

Mumbai, 8 Sept 1885

My dear Mr. Justice

I have your valuable letter to the effect on the 1st inst. and am glad to hear from you. The matter is a very important one and I am sure that you will be very anxious to see it. I have made the necessary arrangements for your convenience and am sure that you will find it all to your satisfaction.
 I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
 A. D. Taylor.

Received
 8th Sept 1885

about her of the lower order Some very poor that she was in some kind of same acts - but this we expected when there was a fortune to be got as the new one.

It was probable or call not to have examined you as I had others who had seen from mine of Miss Scott, who was in no way connected with the caller.

As I said the case is safe - The Judge ^{Lincoln} is inexperienced - this being his first case & as the case took hold of the orator of French witness upon English I felt a little afraid of the result. now I do not think there is any danger & even if this judge makes a mistake I am perfectly confident his judgment will be reversed without fail.

Wm. W.
U.S. Marshal

I may say the case is completely harmless and shall probably get paid in 1 act.
