Principal J. W. Dawson,

Dear Sir:

We are planning for a special series of side-light articles on next year's International lessons.

As you are aware, these lessons begin next year with the Book of Acts; and we have already secured a number of distinguished European and American scholars, such as Bishop Ellicott, Dean Howson, Dr. Uhlhorn, Dr. Christlieb, Prof. Caspar René Gregory, Prof. Schaff, etc, as special contributors to the proposed series.

We should like to have your name also appear on the list. Would you write on The Sin of Ananias and Sapphira? This is a subject, which, in view of recent discussions as to whether lying is ever justifiable, we feel anxious to have treated by one so competent as yourself. Of course the subject is a broad one; and we should not at all restrict you in your treatment of it.

We should like to have the article by about the first of January, and would be obliged if you would make an immediate response to this, stating whether you can accede to our request.

For space, the article might extend to 2000 words.

Enclosed please find honorarium, for the proposed article.

With thanks for ready help granted here-before, and hopes that you will be able to send us the article asked for,
I am,

Sincerely yours,
The Sunday School Times,
John T. Napier.
