Dear Dr Dawson

I have duly received the box which you have kindly addressed to me here. I shall not unpack it at present, as I find my time constantly taken up by some demand upon it arising out of my large connection here; but must carry it home to examine carefully at my leisure. I hope that you will forward to Messrs Allan, when we have fixed upon our time and ship (of which I will duly inform you) a larger box containing the specimens I picked out from our days work on the Aures-tan country. <sup>truly</sup> yours WBC
